Grades in this course will be based on evaluations of the following materials:

Course grades will be based on exam scores and research participation.

Exams: There will be three regular exams. Each exam will consist of multiple-choice questions. These exams will not be “cumulative.” That is, each of these exams will only cover the material that was covered since the previous exam. Each exam will be worth a maximum of 100 points. A penalty will be assessed for students who are late to any exam. This penalty will consist of a 1% deduction for each minute that students are late for those who are more than 5 minutes late (e.g., a student who is 20 minutes late will have 20% deducted from his exam score).

Final Exam: This exam will have two parts. Part 1 will cover the final two chapters and will not be cumulative. Part 2 will be cumulative and will assess all of the information that you were responsible for learning this semester. Both parts of this exam will consist of multiple-choice questions. Part 1 of this exam will be worth a maximum of 100 points. Part 2 of this exam will also be worth a maximum of 100 points.

Exams: 300 points (3 @ 100 points each)

Part 1 of Final Exam: 100 points

Part 2 of Final Exam: 100 points

TOTAL of 500 points

The following scale will be used to determine the final grade:

B	3.0	83%-86%

Research Participation Requirement: All students enrolled in PSY 1000 must fulfill the departmental requirement for research participation. YOU MUST EARN 10 CREDITS BY THE DEADLINE (<http://wwwp.oakland.edu/psychology/research-participation/>). When you elect to participate in psychological research, you will earn research credit that corresponds to the amount of time required for the study (i.e., studies requiring more time are worth more credits) and the type of study (i.e., laboratory-based studies that require students to schedule appointments and come to campus are worth more credits than internet-based studies that can be completed without coming to campus). The number of credits associated with each study will be clearly indicated as you browse the list of available studies on <http://oakland.sona-systems.com/>. IMPORTANT: FAILURE TO COMPLETE THIS REQUIREMENT WILL RESULT IN A REDUCTION OF YOUR COURSE GRADE SUCH THAT YOU WILL LOSE 1% FOR EACH CREDIT THAT IS NOT COMPLETED. For example, a student who had an average of 90% in the course but failed to complete any of the research participation credits that were required would receive a final grade of 80% (90% - 10%). However, if this student had earned all credits, then the student would have received a 90% in the course. Make sure to indicate that you want your research credits applied to this course. Credits that are not specifically assigned to this class will not be included in your grade at the end of the semester. It is your responsibility to earn research credits and assign them appropriately. Please be sure to earn the required number of credits! For those who do not want to participate in research, you may complete a set of alternative assignments to meet this requirement. Additional details for this assignment may be found on the course website.

Students may earn extra-credit by completing up to 5 additional research credits beyond the credits that are required for the course. Each of these additional research credits will be worth 1% of your grade for the course. For example, a student who had an average of 85% could earn up to 5% extra-credit which would improve his/her grade to 90%.
